Guru Nanak Institute of Research and Development (GNIRD):

Guru Nanak Institute of Research and Development was (GNIRD) established in 2005, which is the central research wing of the college.

GNIRD, established under the aegis of Late Dr. R.T. Sane, has the distinction of being one of the few institutes that is best for providing instrumental facilities to cater the different requirements of inter disciplinary research.

As a policy, GNIRD, in addition to carrying out research activities, extends its facilities and expertise to academic institutions and students who wish to upgrade their knowledge and avail the opportunity through way of workshops and training at nominal charges.

SRIJNA

Since 2015, GNIRD has hosted SRIJNA national level poster competition, which is open to all science-related undergraduate (UG), Post-graduate (PG), Research scholars, and Teachers.

Participants can exhibit their posters in the competition's categories for (cross) disciplinary research.

The objective is to encourage individuals to think broadly about how their research fits into larger worlds or how their research could have an innovative impact on other research fields. Here, we encourage graduate, postgraduate & research students to share their work with others and get them ready to discuss their findings at higher levels.

Poster Category

1. UG
2. PG
3. PPG
4. Teachers

Online applications for out station participants only.

Mode of payment:

Cash: GNIRD (Accountant GNIRD)
